If this case went to trial, the United States would prove by admissible evidence and beyond a reasonable doubt the following:

1. The defendant, David Alexander Post, is a 19-year-old citizen of the United States.
- _____2. Beginning on or about May 1, 2003, and continuing through on or about June 18, 2003, within the Eastern District of Virginia and elsewhere, David Alexander Post, did unlawfully and knowingly combine, conspire, confederate and agree together with Joseph Bleich, and with other persons known and unknown to the grand jury, with intent to defraud, to falsely make, forge, and counterfeit obligations and securities of the United States, namely, more than $1,000 of United States currency, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 371.
3. In or about May 2003, in Fairfax County, Virginia, Post, Bleich, and an unindicted conspirator purchased a scanner to counterfeit United States currency. Post, Bleich, the unindicted conspirator, and a second unindicted conspirator used computer equipment, including the newly purchased scanner, to print approximately $4,000 in counterfeit United States twenty dollar bills.

4. In or about May 2003, Post, Bleich, and the two unindicted conspirators then traveled to a concert in West Virginia to purchase marijuana with the counterfeit United States currency. Upon arriving in West Virginia, each of the four conspirators, including Post, purchased marijuana using the counterfeit currency.

5. When they returned from West Virginia to Fairfax County, Virginia, in May 2003, Post sold approximately ten counterfeit twenty dollar bills, or $200 in counterfeit currency, to a high school classmate.
